

Kit Bennett

“Spiky lyrics suit Kit’s wide-ranging vocals with the likes of Alanis Morissette and Shirley Manson clear influences especially in the likes of ‘Mania’ and ‘Better Places’”
- Darren McVeigh (Metal Planet Music)

“her strong, distinctive voice is increasingly bathed in lush harmonies, powerful chords, simple driving beat and a hook that is reinforced with persistence and passion.”
- Neil March

With a voice often stated as being reminiscent of Annie Lennox and piano skills that encompass her wide array of musical influences including jazz, blues, folk, pop, classical and rock, Kit Bennett (formally Miss Kitty) has been steadily taking the world by storm since she launched herself as a solo artist in April 2020.

Her debut album Kiss & Tell (2020) and follow-up EP Game of Chess (2022) have been met with great excitement by her dedicated fans. Kit's Facebook Live shows are extremely popular, and she has released an impressive collection of original and cover videos.

Having recently relocated to the Welsh Valleys, she's now formed a 4-piece band to take on the road. She also performs her music as part of an acoustic duo with James Ashbury. They are both former members of Wildflowers, a folk rock band who shared stages with Robert Plant, George Ezra and Tom Odell.

Fans of Alanis Morissette, Larkin Poe, Garbage, Fiona Apple, Carole King, Joan Armatrading, Blondie, Deap Vally, Janis Joplin and similar, should not hesitate in checking out Kit. Her back catalogue offers catchy, driven country-pop (Fly Me Home, Game of Chess, Butterflies), soulful bluesy ballads (When The Rain Comes Down, If You Loved Me Too) and protest songs disguised as summer feel good bangers (Better Place) or the straight up and unapologetically angry I Feel So Numb.
